

AERMUSE AI ATTORNEY

PRODUCER & BEAT LICENSING MASTER AGREEMENT

SECTION A — GENERAL PRODUCER TERMS

A1. Appointment of Producer

The Artist appoints the Producer to provide production services including composing, arranging, sound design, engineering, mixing, vocal direction, or other creative work.

A2. Scope of Work

The Producer will create or assist in creating original music, supervise sessions, deliver files, disclose samples, and provide reasonable revisions.

A3. Ownership of Producer Contributions

All beats, compositions, or production elements remain the Producer's intellectual property until exclusive rights or splits are agreed.

A4. Producer Credit

The Artist must credit the Producer on all releases as: "Prod. by [Producer Name]".

A5. Delivery Requirements

Producer delivers drafts, finals, and stems once payment terms are met. Project files are not required unless agreed.

A6. Payment Model

Payments may include upfront fees, royalties, publishing splits, beat leases, or exclusive rights.

A7. Revisions

Revisions must follow agreed limits. Additional work may require additional payment.

A8. Studio Etiquette

Both parties agree to professional conduct and no unauthorised recording or leaks.

A9. Confidentiality

All creative ideas and drafts remain confidential.

SECTION B — STUDIO, SESSION & CREATIVE WORK TERMS

B1. Session Recording Rights

The Artist owns their vocals; the Producer may withhold files until payment is complete.

B2. Custom Beat Creation

Custom beats remain Producer's copyright unless exclusive rights are granted.

B3. Studio Usage

The Artist must respect equipment and may not copy software or presets.

B4. Engineering & Mixing

Final mixes must be approved. Project files are not required unless purchased.

B5. Data Protection

Producer must store files safely but is not liable for unavoidable losses.

B6. AI Safeguards

No stems or vocals may be used for AI training, modelling, or replication.

SECTION C — OWNERSHIP, ROYALTIES, MASTER RIGHTS & PUBLISHING

C1. Ownership of the Final Song

Master ownership: Artist _____% | Producer _____% | Third Party _____%.

C2. Publishing & Songwriting Splits

Publishing must match contribution. ISRC codes must be correctly registered.

C3. Royalty Structure

Producer receives _____% royalties unless a buyout is agreed.

C4. Master Usage Rights

Artist may release the Master once payments are complete.

C5. Producer Portfolio Rights

Producer may showcase the finished track unless confidentiality is requested.

C6. Release Approval

Release requires correct credits, payments, samples, and ISRCs.

C7. Disputes

Parties must attempt private resolution before legal escalation.

SECTION D — BEAT LICENSING OPTIONS (LEASES & EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS)

D1. MP3 Lease — Non-Exclusive

Price: £ _____. MP3 delivery. Limited streams, videos, and performances. ISRCs mandatory. Restrictions: No reselling, sublicensing, redistribution, or AI training.

D2. WAV Lease — Non-Exclusive

Price: £ _____. Includes WAV delivery and extended usage rights. ISRC and restriction rules apply.

D3. Unlimited Lease — Non-Exclusive

Price: £ _____. Unlimited streams, videos, and performances. Delivery includes WAV+MP3. Still non-exclusive.

D4. Exclusive Rights Purchase

Exclusive Price: £ _____. Includes stems, WAV, MP3. Beat removed from all platforms. Publishing split must be declared.

D5. Upgrade Rights

Artist may upgrade any lease to Exclusive by paying the difference.

D6. General Restrictions

Artist may not claim ownership of the beat, resell it, upload it alone, or use it for AI training.

SIGNATURES

PRODUCER

Name: _____

Digital Signature: _____

Date: _____

ARTIST

Name: _____

Digital Signature: _____

Date: _____