ARTIST TO ARTIST — CREATIVE COLLABORATION NDA

This Artist-to-Artist Creative Collaboration Non-Disclosure Agreement ("Agreement") protects the ideas, creative work, and confidential information shared between the signing artists. It ensures that anything shared cannot be used, claimed, or distributed without permission.

1. WHO IS INVOLVED

This Agreement is between the artists signing below ("the Parties"). It covers conversations, ideas, creative work, and any material shared between them.

2. PURPOSE OF SHARING

Information and creative work are being shared solely to explore or work on a potential artistic collaboration. It must only be used for that purpose.

3. WHAT COUNTS AS CONFIDENTIAL & PROTECTED

All creative material shared in any format is protected, including: voice notes, demos, lyrics, recordings, project files, beats, visuals, messages, DMs, texts, AirDrops, screenshots, artwork, drafts, concepts, and ideas at any stage.

4. OWNERSHIP OF IDEAS

Any idea, concept, lyric, melody, style, or creation remains owned by the person who originally shared or created it unless a separate written agreement states otherwise.

5. EARLY SPLIT UNDERSTANDING (NOT A SPLITS CONTRACT)

Sharing an idea or contributing to a conversation does not automatically grant rights or ownership to a song or project. Splits must be agreed later in writing if the Parties decide to fully collaborate.

6. NO SHARING, POSTING, OR LEAKING

The Parties must not share, post, leak, forward, or use any creative material or private conversations without written permission. This includes social media, group chats, or private listening spaces.

7. CONSEQUENCES OF BREAKING THIS AGREEMENT

If this Agreement is broken, the responsible Party may be required to stop using the material, delete or return content, and may be held responsible for losses or damages caused by the breach.

8. HOW LONG THIS AGREEMENT LASTS

This Agreement begins upon signing and lasts for 3 years, or longer if the creative material is still not released or public.

9. RESOLVING DISAGREEMENTS

The Parties agree to speak directly and respectfully to resolve issues first. If needed, legal steps may follow based on the laws of the country where the signing Artist resides unless both Parties agree otherwise.
